

Application Form for the Position of Language Assistant

Shea House

Language Assistants receive free room and board in the Shea House. Language Assistant duties require approximately 5 hours per week* and include:

- ◆ running a weekly "Language Corner" for one hour in which all the residents in your language group are required to participate;
- ◆ engaging in dinner conversations with your language group for approximately half an hour per night, Monday through Thursday;
- ◆ organizing "Semester Events" for your language group and the Shea House residents, and coordinating the events with other Language Assistants and House government members.
- ◆ maintaining the floor activity calendar and the floor page of the Shea House website

In addition, the LA is required to meet with the relevant language faculty representative on a biweekly basis and report on the floor language activities. The LA should communicate closely with the in-house Program Facilitator who oversees all LAs. All LAs are required to attend bi-weekly LA meetings to review past and future activities, and to participate in bi-weekly Shea House government meetings.
